BOOKS

Accidents of Nature

By Harriet McBryde Johnson

It's the summer of 1970. Seventeen-year-old Jean has cerebral palsy, but she's always believed she's just the same as everyone else. She's never really known another disabled person before she arrives at Camp Courage. As Jean joins a community unlike any she has ever imagined, she comes to question her old beliefs and look at the world in a new light. The camp session is only ten days long, but that may be all it takes to change a life forever.

Coping with Cerebral Palsy

By Laura Anne Gilman

A realistic self-help book with a short chapter devoted to the basics-definition and treatment. The following chapters discuss attaining independence, schooling, dealing with the insensitivity of others, depression, traveling, working, and relationships with others, all taking into account the amount of disability.

In Your Face Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy All Pain All

Glory

By Misty VanderWeele

A living memoir of mothers journey with sons life threatening disease Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy. As a gift to present him for graduation and in celebration of his life now, while he still graces this planet with his life. For he has lived longer then "they" said he would.

Muscular Dystrophy the Facts

By Alan Emery

Written specifically for people with muscular dystrophy and their families, this new edition of Muscular dystrophy: the facts answers many of the questions asked about how and why it occurs, and how it will affect the life of a recently diagnosed child.

Night of the Lighted Freedom

By Dana Marquess

A curious nine-year-old with Muscular Dystrophy, Malcom, his friend Tyler, and his pesky little sister Deanna have a great adventure on the late summer beach with some extraordinary fireflies.

Small Steps

By Louis Sachar

Two years after being released from Camp Green Lake, Armpit is home in Austin, Texas, trying to turn his life around. But it's hard when you have a record and everyone expects the worst from you. The only person who believe in Armpit is Ginny, his ten-year-old disabled neighbor. Together, they are learning to take small steps.
